Matthew 26:17-30

Jesus' disciples asked:

"Where should we prepare the Sabbath meal?"

Jesus told them:

"Go into the city to a certain man. Tell him that the teacher will celebrate the Passover at his house."

They prepared the Passover meal.

"One of you will betray me," Jesus said.

All of the disciples were shocked! Betray their teacher?

Jesus said, "The one who dips his hand in the bowl with me will betray me."

Judas said, "It's not me, is it?"

Jesus said, "It is." Then Judas left.

Then, Jesus took bread, gave thanks to God, and broke the bread.

"This is my body," Jesus said.

Then, Jesus took the cup.

"This is my blood poured out for you," Jesus said.

BIBLE PASSAGE: MATTHEW 26:17-30

This year Easter Sunday is on April 4. You can begin to prepare for Easter as a family by reading the passages we study in Sunday school. Read Matthew 26:17-30. Eat dinner together and include bread.

Bread was something Jesus' followers ate every single day. When we eat bread, we can remember that God is with us every day.

FAST FACT 1

Jesus had many disciples. They were his students who followed him as he taught about God and cared for people. Among the disciples, Jesus chose twelve men to be leaders. Sometimes, these disciples are simply called the Twelve. Other times, we call them the Apostles.

FAST FACT 2

Judas Iscariot was one of the Twelve. We read about Judas a few times in the Gospels. In the Book of John, we read that Judas was the one who kept the money for the Twelve. We also learn that he stole money from the bag for himself (John 12:5-6, CEB).

FAST FACT 3

Judas betrayed Jesus. The leaders who wanted Jesus arrested paid Judas 30 pieces of silver to help them. Amazingly, Jesus knew that one of the disciples would eventually betray him. At the Passover meal, Jesus knew what Judas was about to do (Matthew 26:25, CEB).
